

SANRAD V-SWITCH 3400 NAMED FINALIST FOR SEARCHSTORAGE.COM AND STORAGE MAGAZINE 2007 PRODUCTS OF THE YEAR AWARDS

SANRAD's V-Switch iSCSI SAN Solution Selected as One of Six Finalists in the Storage Networking Equipment Category

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. – January 25, 2008 – SANRAD, Inc., a leading supplier of Storage Area Network (SAN) connectivity and management solutions, today announced that SearchStorage.com and Storage magazine named the SANRAD V-Switch 3400 iSCSI SAN solution as a Storage Networking Equipment finalist for the 2007 Storage Products of the Year Awards.

The awards, chosen by the Storage magazine and SearchStorage.com editorial staff, in conjunction with a team of users, industry experts, and consultants, recognize innovation, performance, ease of integration into existing environments, ease of use and manageability, and value. Information on the six Storage Networking Equipment finalists can be found here.

"Continuing upheavals in the storage marketplace in 2007 led to a surge in innovative storage technology, resulting in vendors submitting a record number of new storage-related products -- more than 200 -- to our annual Products of the Year competition," said the editors of SearchStorage.com and Storage magazine. Winners will be featured online at www.SearchStorage.com on February 5, 2008 and in the February issue of Storage magazine.

SearchStorage.com and Storage magazine recognized the SANRAD V-Switch 3400, with integrated StoragePro software, as an open, scalable solution providing SAN connectivity and storage management for any physical or virtual server. Its Global Data Replication (GDR) software also provides enterprise-class disaster recovery across data centers and remote offices connected by local, metropolitan or wide area IP networks.

"Being selected as a finalist for this highly esteemed award is a testament to the innovation and unique value of our V-Switch solutions," said Kim Tchang, Vice President of Marketing, SANRAD. "We are honored that the V-Switch 3400 has been recognized as one of the top Storage Networking Equipment solutions for 2007."
